

HIKING TOUR LOOKING AT THE OLDEST PINE IN SWEDEN!

27th of May, at 10 am ~ 2 pm

Meetingpoint Arnövikén, for further journey to the reserve

Enjoy a hiking tour to the oldest pine in Sweden - approx. 750 years old. The tour is 4 km in the nature reserve North Hornslandet, in the Eco-park reserved by Svea Skog. Bring your own "fika".

The activity must be booked 2 days before day of setting.

Price: 250 SEK/adult, 100 SEK/youth (13-17 years), 0 SEK/children (0-12 years)

Facts about the tour:

The Eco-park of Hornslandet is a peninsula which was a small island in the early days. The interesting environment is a result of the a big forest fire in 1888 and the nature is preserved in several nature reservations. The Eco-park was established by Svea Skog in 2004. Both white-tailed eagle, rare woodpeckers and the lady's slipper can be seen here. During the tour we stop by an enchanted small lake, "fika" at Nicklas Tea House, before reaching the old pine.

Equipment:

Equipment of your own as walking shoes, water, rucksack and "clothes after weather" is required. And don't forget to bring your own "fika".

Directions:

Meeting point at Arnövikén for further transportation to the start of track. The village of Arnövikén, is placed approx. 20 km east of the city of Hudiksvall.
